Suzuki GT750

The 1973 Suzuki GT750, affectionately known as the “Water Buffalo”, was a groundbreaking motorcycle as one of the first liquid-cooled two-stroke triples designed for road use. Released at a time when two-stroke engines were dominating the racing world, the GT750 offered a unique blend of power, smoothness, and long-distance comfort, making it a favorite among touring riders and collectors alike.

This GT750 has 17,011 km on the clock, retains its original frame and engine, and comes with Finnish registration papers. It has been professionally repainted, restoring its classic appearance while keeping its originality intact. As a rare and highly sought-after model, this GT750 is an excellent opportunity for both collectors and enthusiasts.

This 1973 Suzuki GT750 is a chance to own a true piece of motorcycle history. With its original frame and engine, low mileage, and Finnish registration papers, this GT750 is perfect for riders and collectors looking for a classic two-stroke machine.
